

PETER STONE BROWN

June 20, 2003

Hi Manor,

Here's a brand new song ("Smokey Mountain Night") I'm especially happy with and another recent song ("Somebody's Birthday") that I honestly can't remember whether I sent you or not. In any case this is a brand new recording of it. Both were done at home.

I also thought you might enjoy my version of "When The Ship Comes In" which I've been doing at just about every show I've done this year.

Anyway, let me know what you think.
